Oriental Education Society was established in 1992 by a group of philanthropists with vast experience in the field of Education. Over the past three decades, its extensive educational campuses in various locations, including Sanpada, Vashi, Jogeshwari and Andheri stand as a testament to the visionary aspirations and pioneering efforts of the leadership team.

The Founder President of Oriental Education Society, Prof. Javed. I. Khan has played pivotal roles in shaping the society's educational initiatives. The unwavering dedication and commitment to quality education have contributed to the society's growth and success.

Oriental Education Society's Oriental College of Education and Research located in Andheri (w) Mumbai was established in the Academic Year 2000-01 with NCTE recognition, and government approval and is affiliated with the University of Mumbai. The College is located in Andheri campus, easily accessible by train as well as road transport. It aims at producing teachers with noble and elevating qualities, who in turn, will achieve extraordinary merits and attainments. The prime objective of the college is to train, guide, reward, and support the virtues and resources that may be inherent but lie latent within students who aspire to become teachers so that they enter the temple learning with adequate light to dispel the darkness of ignorance and lead the young minds to higher goals with a perfect synchronization of mental intellectual wanting of the knowledge laced with moral promoting Indianness.
