Report on Ganesh Festival Celebration

Event: Ganesh Festival

Date: 05/09/2024

Venue: OCER, Room No -401

Organized By: F.Y.B.Ed. Sem III 2024-25

Event In-charge – Asst. Professor Manisha Sonavane

On 5/9/24, our institution celebrated the auspicious festival of Ganesh Chaturthi with great enthusiasm and devotion. The event commenced with a traditional Lezim dance performance by Priya and Renu, which filled the atmosphere with energy and excitement. Their synchronized movements and vibrant costumes added a festive spirit to the celebration.

Following the dance performance, the audience participated in the Ganesh Aarti led by the host, Jyoti. The soulful chanting and prayers created a spiritual atmosphere, invoking blessings from Lord Ganesh, the remover of obstacles and the harbinger of prosperity.

After the Aarti, Jyoti took the stage to explain the significance of Ganesh Chaturthi. She eloquently spoke about the importance of the festival in Hindu culture and how it symbolizes the victory of good over evil. Her insights helped the audience understand the deeper meaning behind the festival.

Next, Priya and Amrin narrated a beautiful and touching moral story related to Lord Ganesh. The story highlighted values like humility, respect for elders, and the importance of knowledge. Their engaging storytelling captivated the audience, leaving everyone with valuable lessons to reflect upon.

The event continued with a melodious group singing performance by all the professors. They sang traditional devotional songs dedicated to Lord Ganesh, filling the hall with divine music. The harmonious voices of the professors created a sense of unity and devotion among everyone present.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by the host, Jyoti, who expressed gratitude to all participants, organizers, and attendees for making the event a grand success. The event not only brought joy and celebration but also imparted important values and teachings associated with Lord Ganesh.

Overall, the Ganesh Festival celebration was a memorable event that fostered a sense of community, devotion, and cultural pride.
