Report on the Legal Empowerment Campaign

Event Overview: The Legal Empowerment Campaign held in February 2025 was an engaging and informative event focused on raising awareness regarding pressing legal issues such as cybercrime, newly introduced laws for 2025, and family crime reporting. The program aimed to empower individuals by providing them with insights into the legal system and new developments that impact the community. The event took place from 10:30 AM to 12:00 PM and was a collaborative effort between Oriental College of Education and Research and Oriental College of Commerce and Management.

Event Highlights:

- 1. Program Kick-off: The event commenced with a warm welcome speech delivered by Dr. Vinayak Shinde in Marathi, who set the tone for the session, highlighting the importance of legal awareness and empowerment in today's society.
- 2. Guest Speakers: The event featured esteemed guest speakers, all of whom contributed valuable insights into the legal landscape and highlighted the challenges faced by society in the modern legal context:
  - Mr. Chandarkant Katkar (ACP): ACP Katkar addressed the attendees on the increasing prevalence of cybercrime and the measures the police force is implementing to combat it. He shared crucial information about the rise of online fraud and how technology is both aiding and challenging law enforcement.
  - Mr. Prabhat Mankar (Police Inspector): Inspector Mankar further discussed the practical aspects of tackling crime in the modern world, emphasizing the importance of law enforcement and community collaboration in preventing criminal activities.

- Mr. Ayub Khan (Advocate, High Court): Advocate Khan shared valuable insights on the newly introduced laws of 2025, specifically focusing on the implications for individuals and businesses. He explained how these laws aim to address emerging societal issues and strengthen the legal framework.
- Mr. Yusuf Khan (Advocate, High Court): Advocate Yusuf Khan elaborated on the family crime reporting process, informing the audience about how these reports can be filed and the rights of individuals in such cases. He stressed the need for legal assistance and support for victims of family-related offenses.
- Mr. Prahlad Dubey (Assistant Sub Inspector): ASI Dubey spoke about his experience in the field and the evolving role of police officers in addressing family-related crimes, helping bridge the gap between law enforcement and the community.

3. Topics Covered:

- Cybercrime: The rise in cybercrime has become a significant concern, and the speakers discussed the latest developments in this area, including prevention strategies and legal responses.
  - New Laws Introduced in 2025: The audience was introduced to the new legal reforms and provisions of 2025, explaining how they impact the day-to-day life of individuals, businesses, and society at large.
  - Family Crime Reporting: The initiative to start family crime reporting was explained, highlighting how it assists individuals in seeking justice for family-related offenses and how the legal system supports them.
4. Guest Facilitation: The distinguished guests were warmly felicitated by Dr. Priyanka Pandey and Dr. Aziz Abdul Shaikh in recognition of their valuable contributions to the event. Their presence added immense value to the campaign and the discussions held throughout the session.
5. Closing Remarks: The event concluded with a vote of thanks from the organizers, expressing gratitude to all the speakers, attendees, and participants. The importance of such educational campaigns was reiterated, urging everyone to make use of the information shared during the session and to continue to stay informed and empowered in the face of legal challenges.

Conclusion: The Legal Empowerment Campaign was a highly informative session that brought together experts from the legal and law enforcement sectors to educate the public about essential legal issues. The discussions on cybercrime, new laws, and family crime reporting were especially valuable in promoting greater awareness and understanding of how the legal system functions to protect individuals and uphold justice. The collaborative effort between Oriental College of Education and Research and Oriental College of Commerce and Management ensured that the event was a success in promoting legal empowerment for all attendees.
