

Oriental Education Society's
Oriental College of Education & Research
UGC NCTE Approved, Affiliated to University of Mumbai,
(NCTE Code- 123016)
Adarsh Nagar, Andheri (W)
NAAC Accreditation 'B' Grade

Report on International Women's Day Celebration

Date: 8th March 25

Venue: Seminar Hall

Organized by: Oriental College of Education & Research

Introduction: International Women's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 8th march 25. Oriental college of education & Research. The event aimed to honor the contributions of women in society and promote gender equality. The emphasizing the importance of empowering women in all aspects of life.

Event Highlights: The celebration commenced with an inaugural speech by, highlighting the significance of Women's Day and the need for gender equality in education and society. The event featured various performances and activities by students to showcase their appreciation for women.

Report on Women's Day Celebration The Women's Day celebration at Oriental College of Education & Research was a grand and inspiring event, highlighting the achievements, struggles, and contributions of women in society. The event was hosted by Faiza, who welcomed everyone warmly and set the tone for an empowering and insightful program.

Key Activities:

Opening Speech

The event commenced with an opening speech by Adila, who emphasized the importance of gender equality and the role of women in shaping society. She encouraged everyone to acknowledge and appreciate the contributions of women in various fields.

Poetry Recitation To celebrate the essence of womanhood, poetry recitations were presented in different languages:

Nandini recited a beautiful poem in English, portraying the strength and resilience of women.

Shifa delivered a heartfelt poem in Marathi, reflecting the struggles and achievements of women.

Aarti captivated the audience with an inspiring poem in Hindi, celebrating the spirit of womanhood.

Significance of Women's Day

Shivam then took the stage to explain the significance of celebrating Women's Day. He highlighted the historical background, the progress made towards women's rights, and the need for continuous efforts to achieve gender equality.

Inspirational Story

Eshika following this, Eshika narrated a motivational story about a woman who overcame challenges and emerged victorious in her field, inspiring the audience to appreciate the strength and determination of women.

Speech on Women's Day

- Lavita delivered an insightful speech on Women's Day, discussing the importance of empowering women and recognizing their contributions in various domains, from home to professional careers.
- Speeches by Faculty Members To further emphasize the importance of the occasion, the following faculty members shared their thoughts:
- Principal Ma'am appreciated the efforts of women and encouraged the students to respect and support gender equality.
- Manisha Ma'am spoke about the challenges faced by women in society and the ways to overcome them.
- Vinayak Sir highlighted the role of men in supporting and uplifting women.
- Anita Ma'am encouraged young girls to be confident and independent.
- Sana Ma'am shared inspiring words about women's empowerment and self-reliance.

Conclusion the event concluded with a vote of thanks by the host, Faiza, expressing gratitude to all participants, faculty members, and attendees for making the celebration meaningful and impactful. The celebration served as a reminder of the importance of recognizing, respecting, and uplifting women in every aspect of life.

