Introduction: On 12th July, Oriental College of Education and Research (OCER, Andheri) celebrated Guru Purnima, which was organized by the Student Council from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM.

Objectives:

- Celebrate Guru Purnima and pay tribute to our Gurus (Teachers)
- Understand the significance of Guru Purnima in education

Program Highlights:

As the host, Vishal welcomed the students and faculty present for the Guru Purnima celebration. The assembly was conducted in a bilingual mode, with the host Vishal narrating in Hindi and the assembly speakers narrating in English. Lavita commenced the assembly with the Guru Mantra. Aliza led the students and faculty in singing the University song. Sejal explained the significance of Guru Purnima, with focus on honoring our gurus (teachers), its spiritual importance, and a tribute to Maharshi Vyas.

Aarti shared the historical origins of Guru Purnima and discussed the celebration of the birthday of Ved Vyasa, the author of the Mahabharata; Vedic significance; and Upanishadic references. Anisha discussed the significance of Guru Purnima in modern education and its profound impact on students' critical thinking and creativity. Priti Verma shared the Gurus who transformed education in India, e.g., Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, Swami Vivekananda. Neha shared a heartfelt tribute to teachers—The modern day Gurus.

Vishal ended the assembly with a vote of thanks to our F. Y. B. Ed students for their attendance and participation as well as to our faculty. The assembly ended with our students and faculty singing to the National Anthem.

As a tribute to our Gurus in Oriental College of Education and Research, Guru Purnima greeting cards were prepared by Shifa, Vedika, Neha Dubey, Tricha, and Stephina for Principal Madam Dr. (Mrs.) Priyanka Pandey, Mrs. Manisha Sonavane, Dr. Vinayak Shinde, Mrs. Anita Yadav, Mrs. Sanabano Sheikh, respectively.

Respected Principal Madam (Dr.) Priyanka Pandey as well as Mrs. Manisha Sonavane and Mrs. Anita Yadav shared their thoughts and provided feedback.

Conclusion: The Guru Purnima celebration conducted at Oriental College of Education and Research (Andheri) was a heartfelt tribute to our Gurus and remembering the contribution of the Gurus in the past. It imbibes in our student teachers a sense of respect for all those Gurus who impart their wisdom and knowledge to their students.
