Report on Har Ghar Tiranga

Date: 14th August

Time: 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM

Venue: Oriental College of Education and Research (Andheri)

Organized by: National Priority Cell

Introduction

On 14th August 2025, the National Priority Cell of Oriental College of Education and Research (OCER), Andheri, proudly organized the Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign in alignment with the nationwide initiative launched by the Ministry of Culture and MyGov. The campaign aimed to celebrate the spirit of India's independence by encouraging every citizen to hoist or display the National Flag at their homes, thereby strengthening the sense of national pride and unity.

Objective

The primary objective of the campaign was to promote active citizen participation in celebrating the 79th Independence Day of India. By encouraging students and faculty to hoist the tricolor, the initiative emphasized patriotism, national unity, and collective responsibility toward the nation.

Program Highlights

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from all students of OCER, Andheri. Each student proudly hoisted the National Flag at their home or within the college campus, capturing this moment in photographs. As part of the campaign, they uploaded their pictures on the official website HarGharTiranga.com, after which they received digital certificates of participation.

The campaign not only instilled a sense of patriotic fervor but also served as a reminder of the duty of every Indian citizen to uphold the dignity of the National Flag. The sight of hundreds of flags being raised simultaneously by students reflected the collective love and respect for the nation.

Conclusion

The Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign 2025 at Oriental College of Education and Research (Andheri) was a resounding success. By hoisting the National Flag on the eve of Independence Day, the campaign spread the message of unity, respect, and patriotism. The initiative brought together students and faculty under the common identity of proud Indians, reaffirming the values of democracy, freedom, and national pride.
