Report on Prabhat Pheri

Date: 14th August 2025

Time: 10:30 AM to 12:30 AM

Venue: Oriental College of Education and Research (Andheri)

Organized by: National Priority Cell

Introduction

On 14th August 2025, the National Priority Cell of Oriental College of Education and Research (OCER), Andheri, organized a Prabhat Pheri to mark the eve of Independence Day. The event was held from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM within the college campus and the adjoining locality. It was an inspiring initiative to celebrate the essence of freedom and unity, while instilling the values of patriotism among the students and faculty.

Objective

The primary objective of the Prabhat Pheri was to spread the spirit of unity, patriotism, and national pride. With the National Flag held high, the participants aimed to symbolize the collective joy of freedom and the democratic spirit of India.

Program Highlights

The Prabhat Pheri commenced with great enthusiasm under the leadership of Dr. Priyanka Pandey, Principal of OCER, Andheri. She was joined by the esteemed faculty members—Dr. Vinayak Shinde, Dr. Veena Kasabe, Mrs. Manisha Sonavane, Mrs. Anita Yadav, and Mrs. Sanabano Shaikh—who marched alongside the students.

The S.Y.B.Ed students actively participated, proudly carrying the National Flag as they moved around the college premises and the nearby locality. The group resonated with patriotic fervor, echoing the values of freedom and national integration. The sight of students and faculty marching together, united by the tricolor, created an atmosphere filled with pride and reverence.

Conclusion

The Prabhat Pheri at Oriental College of Education and Research (Andheri) proved to be a memorable and meaningful event. Organized on the occasion of Independence Day, it successfully spread the message of oneness, freedom, patriotism, and democracy. The initiative not only strengthened the bond among students and teachers but also reminded everyone of the sacrifices made by the freedom fighters. With hearts full of pride and voices filled with patriotic zeal, the event became a true celebration of India's spirit of independence.
