Report on the Celebration of 150 Years of Vande Mataram

Organised by: Oriental College of Education and Research

Date: 8th November 2025

Venue: College Auditorium

Objectives of the Programme

1. To commemorate 150 years of the national song Vande Mataram.
2. To help students understand the historical and cultural significance of the song.
3. To instill patriotism and national pride among students.
4. To create awareness about the role of Vande Mataram in India's freedom struggle.
5. To encourage student participation in cultural and patriotic activities.

Report

To mark the completion of 150 years of the iconic national song Vande Mataram, the Oriental College of Education and Research organised a special commemorative event on 8th November 2025. The programme aimed to honour the historical, cultural, and patriotic value of the song composed by Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay in 1875.

The event started with an introductory speech by a student representative who highlighted the significance of Vande Mataram in India's freedom movement and its continued relevance in promoting national unity. The speech elaborated on the meaning, symbolism, and emotional depth embedded in the song.

Following the speech, a documentary presentation showcased the historical background of Vande Mataram, its widespread influence during the independence struggle, and its journey across 150 years. The documentary enhanced students' understanding of the song's heritage.

The celebration concluded with a collective rendition of Vande Mataram by all students. The group singing created an atmosphere of patriotism, pride, and shared cultural identity within the auditorium.

Overall, the event successfully achieved its objectives by deepening students' appreciation of national heritage and reinforcing the spirit of unity and patriotism.
