

Report on DLLE Orientation Programme

Date: 12 September 2026

Time: 9:30 to 10:00 am

Venue: Oriental college of education and research, Lecture Hall (Room No.401)

Introduction:

On 12th September 2026, Oriental College of Education & Research (OCER), Andheri, organized a DLLE Orientation Programme for the students. The programme was conducted to introduce students to the objectives, activities, and significance of the Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (DLLE). It aimed to create awareness about community service, social responsibility, and learning through real-life experiences.

Objectives

- To understand the purpose and significance of the DLLE programme.
- To create awareness about community service and social responsibility.
- To encourage students to participate actively in DLLE activities.
- To develop qualities such as teamwork, leadership, communication, and empathy.
- To connect classroom learning with real-life experiences and community needs.

Program highlight:

The DLLE Orientation Programme began with an introduction to the Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension and its role in promoting community-based learning. Students were made aware of the various activities and initiatives conducted under DLLE.

The session highlighted the importance of learning beyond the classroom and encouraged students to actively participate in activities that benefit the community. The students were guided on how DLLE activities can help develop social awareness, responsibility, leadership qualities, and teamwork.

The programme also emphasized the values of "Learn, Serve, Grow." Students were encouraged to understand social issues, interact with the community, and contribute through meaningful activities. The orientation created a positive and informative environment and motivated students to take active participation in upcoming DLLE initiatives.

Students and teachers came together to understand the importance of extension activities and their contribution towards personal as well as social development. The programme provided students with an opportunity to learn, interact, and understand their responsibilities towards society.
