

Oriental Education Society's
ORIENTAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & RESEARCH
NCTE Approved & Affiliated to University of Mumbai
Adarsh Nagar, Andheri (W)
25 + years of Academic Excellence

Date: 04 September 2026

Time: 9:30 to 10:00 am

Venue: Oriental college of education and research, Andheri (west), Lecture hall 401

Introductions:

On 4th September 2026, Oriental College of Education & Research (OCER), Andheri celebrated Krishna Janmashtami with devotion, enthusiasm, and cultural spirit. The celebration was organized to commemorate the birth of Lord Krishna and to create awareness among students about the significance of the festival and the values reflected in Krishna's teachings.

Objectives:

- To understand the religious and cultural significance of Janmashtami.
- To learn about the life, teachings, and values of Lord Krishna.
- To promote devotion, unity, cultural awareness, and participation among students.
- To understand the relevance of Krishna's teachings in our daily lives.

Program highlight:

The Janmashtami celebration began with a warm and devotional atmosphere. Students participated actively in the programme and presented various aspects related to Lord Krishna and the significance of Janmashtami.

A presentation on "Krishna Janmashtami" was shown, highlighting the birth of Lord Krishna and the importance of the festival. Students also explained the significance of the day, including the celebration of Krishna's birth and the message of the victory of good over evil.

A special segment, "Thought of the Day," was presented based on the teachings of Lord Krishna. The message emphasized the importance of performing one's duty sincerely without being attached to the results. The teaching encouraged students to remain dedicated, focused, and responsible in their actions.

The celebration also included a traditional devotional atmosphere with Krishna-themed decorations. The venue was beautifully decorated with peacock feathers, balloons, flowers, diyas, and other festive elements. A beautifully arranged Krishna idol and traditional offerings added to the spiritual ambience of the celebration.

Students and teachers came together to participate in the celebration with joy and devotion. The programme provided an opportunity to appreciate Indian culture and traditions while understanding the deeper values associated with faith, love, duty, humility, and righteousness.

Conclusion:

The Janmashtami celebration at Oriental College of Education & Research (Andheri) was a meaningful and enriching event. It was not only a celebration of the birth of Lord Krishna but also an opportunity to understand his teachings and their relevance in our lives. The programme successfully brought together cultural learning, devotion, and joyful participation, creating a memorable experience for everyone present.

The celebration reminded us of the timeless message of Lord Krishna—to perform our duties with sincerity, maintain faith, and always follow the path of righteousness.

Photo Gallery:

Student explaining significance of the day

Student offering Aarti

Krishna Altar Setup

Group Photograph

Dr. Avani Kanakia
Faculty In-charge

Dr. Masarrat Ali
I/C Principal