Date: 3rd October 2026,

Venue: Oriental College of Education, Andheri Lecture Hall (Room No. 401)

Participants: Second -Year B.Ed. Students

Introduction:

Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated at Oriental College of Education & Research to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. The programme was based on the theme “Peace, Non-Violence and Cleanliness.” The celebration aimed to remember Gandhi’s values and inspire everyone to follow them in daily life.

Objectives:

- To remember the life and contributions of Mahatma Gandhi.
- To promote the values of peace and non-violence.
- To create awareness about the importance of cleanliness.
- To encourage students to follow truth, simplicity and discipline.
- To develop respect for national values and social responsibility.

Programme Highlights:

The programme began with a prayer, followed by an introduction to the significance of Gandhi Jayanti. A welcome and tribute were offered in remembrance of Mahatma Gandhi. The Thought of the Day was presented, followed by a speech highlighting his life, principles and contribution to India’s freedom struggle.

A poem on Mahatma Gandhi was presented, adding a meaningful and creative element to the celebration. A pledge on Peace, Non-Violence and Cleanliness was also taken by the participants, encouraging everyone to practise these values in their daily lives.

The programme continued with an address by the Principal/Faculty, followed by a PPT presentation on Mahatma Gandhi. The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks and the National Anthem. The programme was conducted smoothly with active participation from the students and faculty members.
